

Australian Journal of Environmental Education

Volume 20(2) 2004

Contents

The Waste Wise Schools Program: Evidence of Educational, Environmental, Social and Economic Outcomes at the School and Community Level Patricia Armstrong	1
Epistemological Renewal and Environmental Education: Science in Context Barbara Bader	13
Environmental Education and Politics: Snakes and Ladders Revisited David Chapman	23
Achieving “Sustainability Education” in Primary Schools as a Result of the Victorian Science in Schools Research Project Annette Gough	31
Changes in Attitudes, Beliefs and Behaviour: A Critical Review of Research into the Impacts of Environmental Education Initiatives Anna Galton, Mark Sinclair & Ken Purnell	41
“Holding Environments”: Creating Spaces to Support Children’s Environmental Learning in the 21st Century Karen Malone	53
Greening Universities in Australia: Progress and Possibilities Donna Noonan & Ian Thomas	67
Sustainable Schools: Making Energy Efficiency a Lifestyle Priority Ken Purnell, Mark Sinclair & Anna Galton	81
Constructivism in Environmental Education: Beyond Conceptual Change Theory Ian Robottom	93
Rising to the Challenge: Education for Sustainability in Australia Daniella Tilbury	103