

AUSTRALIAN JOURNAL OF ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION
VOLUME 14
1998

CONTENTS

Editorial	i
Thematic Section – Children’s Views in Environmental Education
Roy Ballantyne, Sharon Connell, John Fien Factors Contributing to Intergenerational Communication Regarding Environmental Programs: Preliminary Research Findings Primary school students talk to their caregivers about experiences in pro-environmental activities.	1
Tammy Kwan, John Miles In The Words of Children and Young People: The Opinions and Concerns about their Environments of some Brisbane School Students Questionnaires, answers and discussions indicate students’ environmental ideas and feelings.	11
Philip Payne Children’s Conceptions of Nature Philosophising with children about their perceptions of nature.	19
General Section
Mary Faeth Chenery, Almut Beringer Reconsidering What Feels Like Failure: Lessons from Environmental Life History Some expected – and unexpected – results of inquiring about the origins of people’s environmentalism.	27
Sharon Connell, John Fien, Helen Sykes, David Yencken Young People and the Environment in Australia: Beliefs, Knowledge, Commitment and Educational Implications Several thousand teenagers’ survey results lead to suggestions for environmental educators.	39
Michael Cuthill Exploring the Concept of ‘Education for a Sustainable World’: Report of Work in Progress Tertiary students’ environmental ideas, opinions and actions.	49
John Hillcoat, Eureka Janse van Rensburg Consuming Passions: Educating the Empty Self Suggestions about responding to over consumption through environmental education.	57
Jonathon Howard Environmental Education and Interpretation: Developing an Affective Difference The importance of education for affect in interpretation.	65

Nicole Mazur
Between the Turnstiles: Zoos as Agents of Environmental Education	71
Visitor responses provide suggestions for zoo and environmental educators.
Ilga Salite
An Ecocentric Paradigm: An Important Tool for Teachers of Environmental Education	81
Environmental education, spirituality and ecocentric worldviews.
Carrie Sonneborn
Educating Engineers about Sustainable Energy: An Overview of the Issues	87
The sustainability, of energy education for engineers.
Ian Thomas, Mary Olsson
Opportunities for Environmental Education Provided by Environmental Management Systems	93
A discussion and preliminary survey on the place of environmental education in EMS training.
Hugo van Rooyen
The Emerging Face of Environmental Education in South Africa's Formal Education: Curriculum 2005 and the Environmental Education Curriculum Initiative	101
An account of attempts to define and manage environmental education in South African schooling.

Stories from Practice

Peter Clark
Having Our Say: The Youth Environment Council Arrives	113
Darlene Clover
Environmental Adult Education in Canada: Growing Jobs for Living	114
David Larritt
From Local to Global: Kids' Congress for Catchment Care	121

Book Review

Roman Orzanski, Delyse Springett
on Global Spin: The Corporate Assault on Environmentalism by Sharon Beder	127

Reading Notes

Peter Dunn
on Resources: Working for the Right Balance by John Mignone, John Walsh, Angela Colliver and Deborah Crossing	135
Kerrie Hudson
on Environmental Education and Self-interest, the educative role of community, government and private environmental agencies and groups by Geoff Peel, Ian Robottom and Rob Walker, and For a Common Cause: Case Studies in Community and Environmental Change by Meg Butler and Graham Bishop	137

Guidelines for Authors

139

Subscription and Membership Information

140